

Resource Pocket Guide

for Arlington, Texas

A pair of hands is shown holding a piece of brown, corrugated cardboard that has been torn into an irregular shape. The cardboard is held up against a background of a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds. The text "Hope for Arlington Homeless" is printed in a black, sans-serif font on the surface of the cardboard.

The City of Arlington's relationship with its nonprofit partners is a vital component to its vision of remaining, "A preeminent city, [which] aims to create an environment that empowers everyone to live their best lives and achieve their version of the American Dream." Charities and organizations throughout the community stand steadfast in the gap to offer essential services to citizens. Annually, using federal funds such as the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG), Emergency Solutions Grant (ESG) and HOME Investment Partnerships, the City of Arlington allocates funding to sustain nonprofit efforts. This collaborative outreach effort ensures that we may equitably serve and provide essential human services throughout the City.

This Resource Pocket Guide was designed to direct Arlington's unhoused to valuable community resources and services. Our valued partnership with each agency is key to ensuring services are rendered where needed most. The result of this alliance is a strong, healthy, and supportive community that has a positive impact on the quality of life and development of all.

Outreach Teams

Outreach teams have years of experience and success working to help those affected by poverty. They have grown services, expanded reach, and improved lives of clients. They provide community-based services for youth and adults with a person-centered approach to changing lives by using innovative strategies. These organizations coordinate housing placement for clients, identify the root-cause of circumstance and connect them with agencies, organizations, and programs best suited to assist.

Emergency Shelter

Emergency shelters are committed to assisting individuals and families impacted by homelessness in Arlington by creating a path to self-sufficiency. They offer a continuum of individualized services to increase their guests' probability of long-term success.

Emergency Shelters stand in the gap during seasons of inclement weather. When weather conditions become hazardous for individuals to be outdoors overnight, the Cold Weather Overflow Emergency Shelter Response Plan is initiated. Emergency Shelters provide temporary accommodations to shield the unhoused from the cold.
